

The True Power of Ascension

as channeled from the Beings of Light through Liesel

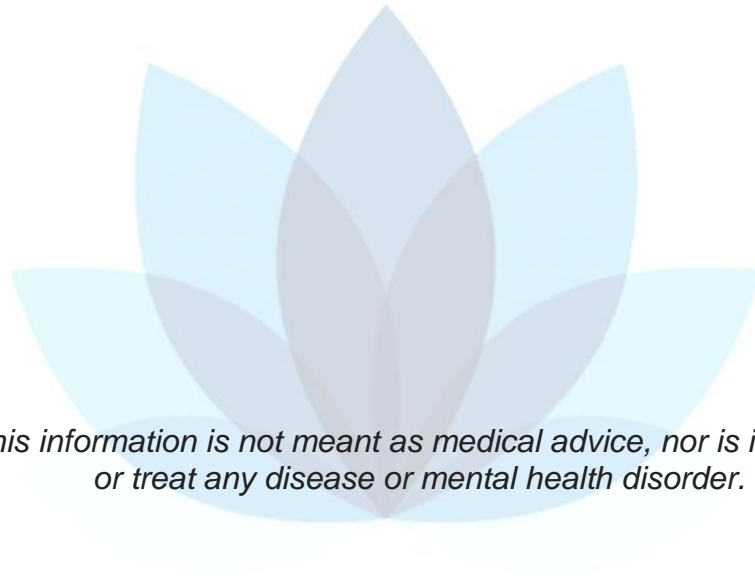

“Many of you are aware of the powerful evolutionary field that is surrounding humanity and the Earth right now that some call the Ascension. Many of you feel its impulse deep within as a kind of homing beacon that helps you open your wings and fly in the direction of further expansion of love and of Truth. Sometimes, you may become concerned or even fearful of the people in your world that do not yet heed this sacred internal signal. Some of these people may be in positions of seemingly great power because they have the capacity to exert their will through the worldly power they have accumulated. You may worry that they will halt or thwart the Ascension. Rest in this knowledge: one cannot negate that which originates from the realm of cause (Spirit) by a means derived from the realm of effect (physical manifestation.) For further comfort and assurance, feel into the deep truth of the following analogy:

By artificially damming the flow of a true river, they may succeed in temporarily interrupting its flow. But know this: Nature and Spirit always play the long game. And as the rains continue to come, eventually a tidal wave of such torrential force and power will be released that it will carve a canyon as its pathway. Then, all the water that ever flows in its wake will have this thoroughfare for its passage. In this way, the dam that was intended to fight the water ultimately is made an ally of the water.”

Your Soul's Plan

“Always know Our love is truly with you, because Our love truly is you.”

Rob Schwartz

Disclaimer: This information is not meant as medical advice, nor is it meant to diagnose or treat any disease or mental health disorder.

Your Soul's Plan

Rob Schwartz